They're trying to keep the dream alive (x3)

She Talks in her sleep
About the secrets that she keeps
About the lovers that she hides
Telling him a thousand lies
Talking bullshit everyday
About the bills she has to pay
She's the torture in his life
Keeps his credit card alive

They're trying to keep the dream alive (x3)

She drives him insane
Knows no guilt, she knows no shame
Spends his money with a flair
Of a multimillionaire
Turns his life into a soap
Puts his neck into a rope
Paints a target on his back
Always ready to attack

They're trying to keep the dream alive (x3)
