Can I stay with you tonight
In my strange and violent mood
I feel so empty and burned out inside
I need you to shake down my mind

Give me a night to remember
Black-painted fingernails that shine
Explore the highways of human desire
Make me suffer in evil candlelight

Crawl into my eyes, she cries
I see blood running down her nails
I feel the pain and realize it's mine
Do I run or do I play the game

Give me a night to remember
Black-painted fingernails that shine
Explore the highways of human desire
Make me suffer in evil candlelight
