You can close you eyes and pretend that everything's fine but sooner or later you'll open your eyes and reality will strike you blind They're stealing all our money and desroying all our scene We're working hard to make them rich with their get rich corporate schemes We won't submit They're full of shit
I'd rather die
Then live a lie You bust your ass every week you think that you are free I want to take a fuckin' gun and shoot them in the head cause I won't rest until the day that I look out and see the lawyers and the politicians all lying around dead Punks unite, show some might don't go down without a fight don't backdown, stand your ground Let's go out and burn this town we'll skank all night at the sight of the city burning bright All around you'll hear the sound of the town burning down Open your eyes, you work for the system You're a tool, I can't take the lies

And if you believe them you're a fool Can't you hear the cries from the working class the ones you rule and you cannot hide because we'll find you It's time for us to fight against everything that you stand for Time to feel our might gonna kick your ass and even the score Burn everything in sight break all of your windows loot your stores

Gonna start tonight We're hard to the core It's time for you to pay for the rotten shit that you have done We won't fade away our hate will burn you like the sun
We will seize the day it's time for us to have some fun We are here to stay until we've fuckin' won We're running out into the streets to pick up sticks and stones We'll wait outside your fuckin' house and break your fuckin' bones We won't listen to reason cause it makes no sense at all We will bring you fuckin' down and make you fuckin' fall
