

Preacher Gone To Texas "End Receptor"

Visit "End Receptor" on MotoLyrics.com

Exceptions taken for granted as a sense, grows nearer
Even this thing will have it's own symbolic ending
Creating a dream for us to fall back on Convection gives way to the memories of these days, sensation array
Sensation array covering our ground
As we move together in the final dance in the end
We found something special in our blood
Hand and hand, hand in hand
Something strong to build our lives upon
Convection gives way to memories
Close your eyes to possibilities
Twelve straight frames shot from reality
Wounded hearts with wounded lives
When we rise up we won't regret a thing
The most this meant to me
