"Sensible Heart"

I get so distracted, by some peoples reactions, That I dont see my own thoughts, for what they are, for what they are.

Im so self distracted, with no intent of motive, but behind this emotion there was a sensible heart, a sensible heart.

Se im no king I wear no crown.
But desperate time seem over now. Yet still I weakin somehow and it tears me apart. It tears me apart.

I hope to learn as time goes by that I should trust whats deep inside beneath my own burning pride. My sensible heart (4x)
