More than once I've cried because impatience let me down
I could see the gold before the gold was found
And everytime I've trusted love to lead me by the hand
It circled back and left me where I stand.

Where is my castle where is my destiny
How much longer will I have to dream
Where is my sunshine where is my valley
Where is the love that's meant for me.

--- Instrumental ---

Next time I cross over that old bridge I'm gonna stay
I don't care if the river washes it away
'Cause I'm not gonna take one step until the day I find
A girl with a faithful heart and a made-up mind.

Where is my castle where is my destiny
How much longer will I have to dream
Where is my sunshine where is my valley
Where is the love that's meant for me.

Where is my sunshine where is my valley
Where is the love that's meant for me...
