"3 Away"

Too often we sit back and take what, take what life gives us
Like holding a bad hand of cards
Always folding instead of raising the stakes
Never wanna bluff and go for it
Afraid that you'll lose all you've got

But you can't win big if you don't bet big
No one ever cleans house from the sidelines
Otherwise the world will pass you by
And you'll never see it go, yeah you'll never see it go
You'll wake up one day wonder and where it all went
And not understand why you made the choices you did

I don't wanna live my life in regret
Everything's a learning experience
I don't wanna live my life in regret
(repeat all)
