"The Last Kiss"

Going out with you is something I can't wait to do.
When we're together the world can stop forever.
Why do nights like this go so fast. They never last long enough.
Cause our love will have to be postponed. It's time to go.

The last kiss is always the hardest one to overcome.
The last kiss is always a lonesome one. It means that love is done.

Holding your hand. It puts me into wonderland.
I can just drop everything and stay here with you.
Caressing you. The time is running out again.
You know it always seems to end the night. Just as it starts.
It's time to part.

The last kiss is always the hardest one to overcome.
The last kiss is always a lonesome one. It means that love is done.
The last kiss is always the hardest one to overcome.
The last kiss is always a lonesome one.
