All alone again
Searching for something
There's no one left
To save me now

I won't be afraid
I just thought you'd catch me
But you're not here
To save me now

I've had my share of criminals
And you're no different from them all

I need a superhero
Cause I'm just a girl
I have no one who will go
And save me from this world
Get me a superhero
Cause I'm just a girl
I know, that you're no
Superhero

What did I expect?
I thought you'd help me
When I was crushed
And beaten down

I've had my share of criminals
And you're no different from them all

I need a superhero
Cause I'm just a girl
I have no one who will go
And save me from this world
Get me a superhero
Cause I'm just a girl
I know, that you're no
Superhero

I'm hanging on the edge of the world
I'm clutching to a string

And my life is crumbling
Down

I need a superhero
Someone to save me

I need a superhero
Someone to save me

I need a superhero
Cause I'm just a girl
I have no one who will go
And save me from this world
Get me a superhero
Cause I'm just a girl
I know, that you're no
Superhero
