Have I been blind, for the first time in my life
It feels like open up, my eyes
I feel such a pain, in my heart
And I think this pain belongs, to you

I don't feel my heart
I just see sparks
The sky is not blue
But red like a rose on Valentine

Why did I find, it out this way
Now I stand alone, in the rain
It is a dark, cold night
And I can't open my eyes.

I don't feel my heart
I just see sparks
The sky is not blue
But red like a rose on Valentine

I don't know where I belong
I thought that love was not dying
I think that it comes up again

I don't feel my heart
I just see sparks
The sky is not blue
But red like a, red like a, red like a
Rose on valentine

I don't feel my heart
I just see sparks
The sky is not blue
No nooh the sky is not blue ohoh
But red like a
Rose on Valentine
