Whoa, yeah
Whoa, yeah
Whoa, yeah
Whoa
Yeah let's go

Never in my life
Felt this way
Had to pinch myself twice
Can't believe how you look tonight

Feels like I'm livin' a fantasy
'Cause honestly you are like
Ten million stars
You're so bright

Shine so hard no need for sunlight
Don't you move girl
'Cause I've been waiting for this day to come

Shawty no way
No other girl does it better than you
She got seven on them sixes
With hello kitty seats
Drop it low if you got dunk in the trunk girl

(Chorus)
She's explosive
I'm not afraid to let her know it
I'm never gonna let her to
Step to the average you
She's not a cookie cutter
One and only
I can never let her go
I swear to tell the girl the truth
A step above the average you
She's not a cookie cutter

(Bridge)
Cutter, she's not your cookie cutter
Cookie cutter cutter
I gotta gotta gotta have her

And I gotta cut her
Gotta cut her
Gotta have her
Yeah I gotta have her
She's not a cookie cutter

Shoulda' let her know
That she's on another level
Nothing compares to my angel

I can't even describe what she does to me
But I try to explain
Words get in the way

Romance showed up to my baby
Makes me feel like I'm super human
I feel I could fly

Shawty no way
No other girl does it better than you

She got seven on them sixes
With hello kitty seats

She's explosive
I'm not afraid to let her know it

Step to the average you
She's not a cookie cutter
One and only

Wooooooo...
Hey, hey, hey, hey
She's not a cookie cutter

Cutter, she's not your cookie cutter
Cookie cutter cutter
And I gotta cut her
Gotta have her
Yeah I gotta have her

She's not a cookie cutter
Yeah, who could understand

You the different type
Even one in a mill
You one of a kind
I love it how you do it
Cause you do it just right

Can't help it but be glad
That you're mine

Uhh, shawty, if you pretty say pretty ricky
Shawty, if you pretty say pretty ricky

Pretty pretty ricky
Pretty ricky
Pretty ricky

Never in my life

A fantasy
'Cause honestly you are

She's explosive
One and only

Cutter, she's not your cookie cutter
Cookie cutter cutter
And I gotta cut her
Gotta have her
Yeah I gotta have her
She's not a cookie cutter girl
