I took her out in the cold.
To explain myself.
But seeking positive change.
Was not something she could tell.
Apologies she assaulted with her attacks.
She's so goddamned ignorant.
I hope she thought this was worth it.
I'm going to back down.
You just dug the hole.
You made a promise i wont forget.
I'm going to remove.
My whole life from you.
Please don't support me.
I hate you.
And i've tried so many times.
To make a change.
She sobered me up.
With all the things she said.
But to think i would tolerate.
This is another bet.
To insult my friends.
And the relations of this band.
Don't show your fucking face again.
Or i will make this hell.
And you try to take my pride away.
