Hey, what about today?
Is everything ok?
The world is in my hands
I don't care
Something in my mind
If I could realize
The colours in my eyes are black and white

Don't believe it's true

If I blame it on you

I'm only trying to hide

I'm not right

Forgive me if you can

Sometimes I'm not a man

My body's here but it's without me

Lonely among a thousand people This is how I feel

Somebody please help me where is my soul Somebody please help me where is my soul Somebody please help me where is my soul Somebody please help me where is my soul
