Steel and fire
Spreading the holy word
Dirty liars
The truth has never been heard
Are you the one who thinks free
Or do you share this mad insanity
To use a religion -- increasing the terror
Is much more than just a human error

What are they fighting for
They call it holy war
So many innocent have died

No democracy in the church of blood
There's no democracy
Welcome to the church of blood

Pray salvation
The promised paradise
Violent nations
Who kill and terrorize
Sowing the seeds of discord
Ready to kill in the name
Of our lord
Suicide victims setting their signs
Burning their books and the tales
Without rimes

What are they dying for
They call it holy war
So many men have left their lives

No democracy in the church of blood
There's no democracy
Welcome to the church of blood

Oh lord, my god -- consider all their words thy hands
Have made
Your son -- you sent him to die
I scare can take it in
That on the cross

My burden gladly bearing
He bled and died to save me
From my sin
