They take the best of you to roll you in
Kick you upside down, feeling like a clown
And after all that's said and done
You'll still be here, after hours, counting the clouds
She knows.

If I could just you for hours in the day
Not to say, we were the best of it
And I've come to take you
Well, I've come to take you
Well, I've come to take you
Well, I've come to take you home

You know I've said it before
I've thrown my back on the door
I only like when you want to hear one name
Counting the clouds
Wanna let it all out
Give me back to my friends.

And, in this union, in this day
We can only start to say
We were the rest of it
And, like the the clouds in the wires
To be true as the fires
To take it away

And I've come to take you
Well, I've come to take you
Well, I've come to take you
Well, I've come to take you home

You know I said it before
I've thrown my back on the door
I only like to hear one name
You know it's hard to pretend
I'll never see you again
And when we walk, we walk in pain
Counting the clouds,
Wanna let it all out
Give me back to my friends
And we start from the end

Like it's my special friend
No need to complain.

I couldn't get up
I couldn't get it
I couldn't get up
With, with my submarine
I'm just a little bit
With just a little bit
I'm just a little bit
She knows just what to do

Well, it's me again
Well, it's me again
Well, it's me again
Alone with my faithful friend
