There's a very fine warmth from the member
There's a spurting little tunnel in the gap
And we're looking for the moment we can enter
So we can find our own way back

Bending in the form of this structure
Holding off before I make the crash
Looking for some spirit in Adventure
Where to make my mark, lay my stamp

I have to wake up smiling, but I haven't got the effort

CHORUS x2
I'm Ms Behaviour
I'm Mr Happy Face
Cautious by nature
Eyes wide everyday

(Eat something, have some fun) x6
(Have some fun) x2

I'm hoping for some guidance in my temper
Not another boo-boo in my sleep
Find a steady point to make some action
Smooth the turning wheels of my own fleet

I have to wake up smiling, but I haven't made my mind up
Where will be the outcome? I haven't got the effort

CHORUS x2
I'm Ms Behaviour
Cautious by nature
I'm Ms Behaviour
Cautious by nature, Eyes wide everyday
