Why are you so arrogant?

(There he is)

(There he is)

(There he is)

What makes a man wanna rule the world?

(A double A double arrogance)

(You got it)

Make him man enough to say he's fifty-fifty girl

(A double A double arrogance)

(You got it)

What makes a man wanna curse and swear?

(A double A double arrogance)

(You got it)

Then blame it on heaven 'cuz he's already there

Pimprag, tootsie pop and a cane

What makes a man wanna play guitar?

(A double A double arrogance)

(You got it)

Same thing that makes him wanna be a star

(A double A double arrogance)

(You got it)

What makes him wanna see his name in lights?

(A double A double arrogance)

(You got it)

That's the same thing that made Eve take the first bite

Pimprag, tootsie pop and a cane

Like a flame she came and I was no longer cold

That's a little shady, for this lady was only sixteen years old
