Oh, baby
Oh, baby

How many times have you called my number
Wishing I was someone else?
How many times did my heart tumble
Feeling sorry for myself?

How many times have I kissed you
And smelled another man's perfume?
How many lonely nights I missed you
Wishing for ya body in my lonely room?
(Lonely room)

Baby, if you break my heart one more time
It'll be the last heart you'll ever break
I've taken all I can take
Baby, this heart wasn't made to break

How many times can you hurt me
(Hurt me)
Before your conscience makes you stop?
(Stop, stop, oh)
You made it all, why now desert me?

Baby, you know you can never cop, never cop
(Never cop)
A body that'll do you like I do
You got to get your thing together sister
I'm tired of being your fool

If you break my heart one more time
It'll be the last heart you'll ever break
Baby, I've taken all I can take
Baby, my heart wasn't made to break

Baby, don't you break my heart
No, no, don't do it

If you break my heart one more time
It'll be the last heart you'll ever break
Darlin', I've taken all I can take

Baby, this heart wasn't made to break

(When you fix your mouth to tell that lie)
When you fix your mouth to tell a brand new lie (Never before told, by and by)
Never ignore the truth, by and by

(False words should never be spoken)
False words should never be, never be spoken
(My heart should never be broken)
And baby, my heart should never be, never be broken

If you break my heart one more time
It'll be the last heart you'll ever break
