Did you get the tape I sent you?
I thought it'd be better in a song
Better than the used condom you sent me
Baby, that was wrong

All the things a brother had to picture
I see him doing things witcha
I see his hand in the small of your back
I see his face in between the king and queen, in fact

Sometimes I wanna die
And come back as one of your tears

If I could just disappear
Cease to exist, cease to be here
(Want me)
If you don't want me
I'm not worth the air that I breathe
I wish I could disappear

Sometimes I wanna die
And come back as one of your tears
(One, one, one)

I'm dying
Sometimes I wanna die
And come back as one of your tears
Sometimes I wanna die
And come back as one of your tears
