Young is the night
It feels so right
Now that you're mine
Let's take our time

The man in the moon is smiling
For he knows what I'm dreamin' of
Tonight is the night for making slow love

The gentle breeze
It blows with ease
Let's make it slow
Just like the wind blows

Let's make it last forever
For a hundred times won't be enough
Tonight is the night for making slow love

Slow love
So much better when we take it easy
Slow love
So much better when we take our time

Love's in your eyes
Eyes never lie
Don't rush the feelin'
You've got me reelin'

You can see through race car drivers
Let me show you what I'm made of
Tonight is the night for making slow love

Slow love
So much better when we take it easy
Slow love
So much better when we take our time
Slow love
So much better when we take it easy
