Oh, my God, here you are
Prettiest thing in life I've ever seen
Close my eyes, what's it like?
What's it like inside your tamborine?

Oh, my God, there I go
Falling in love with a face in a magazine
(Uh oh, not again)
All alone, by myself
Me and I play my tamborine

Trampoline, trampoline, trampoline, trampoline
Long days, lonely nights, trampoline
Long days, lonely nights, trampoline

I don't care for one night stands
With trolley cars that juggle seventeen
I just wanna settle down
And play around my baby's tamborine

Tamborine, what are you?
Why are you the star of all my dreams?
(Star of all my dreams, are you a good tamborine?)
Are you good? Are you bad?
Are you just unnecessary means?

Trampoline, tamborine, tamborine, trolley cars

Long days, lonely nights
Too bad we're not allowed to scream
(Yeah, yeah, too bad)
Guess that I'll stay at home all alone
And play my tamborine

Tamborine, tamborine, tamborine, tamborine
The tamborine
