Good morning children

Take a look out your window

Our world is falling

It's almost time 2 go

(Dance)

Dance the Dance Electric

The rhythm is love and love is blind

Love your enemies

There isn't much time, there isn't much time

Look - our world is falling

A rhythm-less house of blinded prophecy

Hear our Master calling

This isn't what He wanted us 2 be

We got 2 dance the Dance Electric

Listen 2 the rhythm of your soul

Come on and dance the Dance Electric

We better love each other, it's almost time 2 go

Don't - it don't make U happy

2 give another someone your own smile

Dance the dance electric

Never mind your hatred, try a brand new style

Dance the Dance Electric

Listen 2 the rhythm of your soul

U got 2 dance the Dance Electric

We better love each other, it's almost time 2 go

We... love... all... enemies

Look - U're livin' in Babylon

Makin', but not feelin' love at all

When your youth is gone, when it comes 2 dawn

A light of truth will shine and U will fall

That's why U got 2 dance the Dance Electric

Listen 2 the rhythm of your soul

U got 2 dance the Dance Electric

We better love each other, it's almost time 2 go

See the light inside of us

U're stuck in living, livin' life as bad

Whatever U do, don't U let your life go without my love

It's the only life that U will ever have

Why don't U (dance) dance the Dance Electric?

Listen 2 the rhythm of your soul

Why don't U dance the Dance Electric?

We better love each other, it's almost time 2 go (almost time 2)

Dance the Dance Electric

Listen 2 the rhythm of your soul

Come on and dance the Dance Electric

We better love each other, it's almost time 2 go
