Said I'm willin' and I'm able
I'm ready to place my cards on the table
I've been holdin' back this feelin' for far to long
Now that I'm willin', it's a fact
Is truly mighty strong

Like a child lost in the wilderness
Till I reach my destination, I won't rest

'Cuz I'm willin'
(Willin')
And I'm able
(Able)
I'm ready to place my cards on the table

There's some kings in my deck and a queen or two
So you know there ain't nothin', nothin' that I wouldn't do
(Nothin' that I wouldn't do)
It was a long time coming, but now that it's here
All the non-believers better fear me

'Cuz I'm willin'
(Willin' and able)
And I'm able
I got good and plenty cards
To place on the table
(Table)

Been holdin' back this feeling for far to long (Holdin' back this feeling for far to long)
Now that I'm willing
(This feelin')
This feelin', it's truly mighty strong
(Truly, I I)

I'm willing (Willin')
And able (Able)
My vision is all clear, I'm feelin' kinda stable

You know I am, you know I am

Ready to whisper
(Whisper, whatcha say)
Ready to shout
(Shout, now whatcha say)
Ready to scream
(Scream, now whatcha say)
From the highest mountain top
(Whatcha say, whatcha say)

Lord, I'm willing and able
I wanna dance and sing somebody watch me do my thing

Willin'
Able
Willin' and able

Willin'
Able
Willin' and able

I wanna dance and sing, somebody watch me do my
thing
(Dance and sing, let me watch you do your thing, bring it to me)

Let me take a bite
To see if you're ripe
I'm kinda thinkin' about takin' a hunk, chunk
A piece of your love tonight

Well hello, MC T on a mellow, swing low to the tempo
As I flow on a roll here we go, willing and able Start the show right with that type of hype
Lay my cards on the table tonite, don't take me light
My flow hits you just like a lead pipe
While I'm clockin' you just say 'fess
About the boots I'm knockin', it ain't like that Somethin' to keep the Jimmy so get off my back
In fact you lack the knack
Step back before I show you how a fool acts, baby yeah
