The broken ice, under the setting sun
If that day would have lasted forever
We would have never flown away
But anyway you wouldn't care about that
You wouldn't care about me

(Bitch)

(Screw)

(Screw you)

You would have never said this
You would have never cared
This blinding light
Bright, Careful, Unaware
You would have never cared

(Bitch)

Crazy fun
That night was crazy fun
Do you remember?
I don't

But I know one thing
Like I think I always have
Bitch.
You don't care.
