Hey Mr. Workabee
I see you working
But do you often forget that you've got a queen at
home?
Yes she sits on her throne
But she feels so alone
And the buzz around town is that you creep around so what are you workin on?

[Verse 1]

There aint that many flowers in the garden
So wat takes you from dusk 'til dawn?
I hate to be all in ur beeswax,
But I'm only looking at the facts

[Bridge]

And it wont be soon before long
Before someone else is bringing honey home
I wanna believe I'm not that naive
But damn don't reality sting?

[Chorus]

Hey Mr. Workabee
I see you working
But do you often forget that you've got a queen at
home?
Yes she sits on her throne
But she feels so alone
And the buzz around town is you creep around so what are you workin on?

[Verse 2]

You say you feel like I don't appreciate you
But I swear, sweet darling yes I do
I just wish that you aint work so late every single day Especially since workabees don't pollinate 'til May

[Bridge]

And it won't be soon before long
Someone else is bringin' honey home
I wanna believe im not that naive
But damn don't reality sting?

[Chorus]

Hey Mr. Workabee
I see you working
But do you often forget that you've got a queen at
home?
Yes she sits on her throne
But she feels so alone
And the buzz around town is you creep around so wat are you workin on?
