I close my eyes, under the stars, still in your arms,
Sun came to rise, and you were gone, just like the dawn.

Crying by your imprint in the green grass,
Wondering why you left me with no warning,
Lonely when I woke up in the morning
Did you think of me as you were going?

Chorus:

If you're running from me, when you take a breath,
I hope you run out of steps,
If you're running from me, when you take a step,
I hope you run out of breath!
Uh, uh, uh, uh,
I hope you run out of breath!
Yeah, yeah,
I hope you run out of breath!
Of breath, out of breath!
I hope you run!

Follow the sun, follow the breeze, behind the trees,
I wasn't low, young and naïve, never believed I'd be,
Crying by you imprint in the green grass,
Wondering why you left me with no warning,
Lonely when I woke up in the morning,
Did you think of me as you were going?

Chorus:

If you're running from me, when you take a breath,
I hope you run out of steps,
If you're running from me, when you take a step,
I hope you run out of breath!
Uh, uh, uh, uh,
I hope you run out of breath!
Yeah, yeah,
I hope you run out of breath!
