There's really not a lot that I care about now
There's really not a lot that I care about now
Somehow I almost feel like I am here tonight

There's really not a lot that I care about now
There's really not a lot that I care about now
Somehow I almost feel like I am here tonight

Too many times when I'm staring here
I can't look back a day to know what it was
All these fucks talking in circles
I wont stand for this shit
Now I don't even know who you are
(who you are)

I don't know

There's really not a lot that I care about now
There's really not a lot that I care about now
Somehow I almost feel like I am here tonight

Too many times when I'm staring here
I can't look back a day to know what it was
All these fucks talking in circles
I wont stand for this shit
Now I don't even know who you are
(who you are)

I don't know
