How could I love this place you've made
Feel so empty I'm laying on my back
Far beneath I'm having trouble seeing
What's left now
And I need you more than anything
Just to see there's nothing in this place
Can't remember how it used to seem without you

And I don't like feeling this way again
And I don't like living this way again
No I don't need you saying those things to me
So I want everything in the world

Always knew I could not tell you no
Even when it killed a part of me
I start to see that anything that's real is forever
Does it seem so perfect in this light
Only words I hear to think it's right
As you smile I can almost see it's over

And I don't like feeling this way again
And I don't like living this way again
No I don't need you saying those things to me
So I want everything in the world
