Hook:

Sing, shout
Scream till the words dry out
In all of the papers
Can read all about it
Sing, shout
Scream till the words dry out
Put it in all of the papers
Read all about it

It's been a couple years since your eyes closed why though
I used to wanna know the answers now I don't
I don't ever wanna be where you been now
I already see enough of you in me dad
Frightened, what if I've grown up to be just like him
But isn't that what all kids should aspire to

Even through all of the shit I admired you
I could have drowned in the pillow I would cry to All I ever wanted was a little time with you
But that's time I aint ever gonna get now
How I am ever gonna get my head round this When I get down the whole world's grey to
There is anything that anyone could say to me
I couldn't careless what people make of me
What they never gave to me they could never take from me

[Hook:]

Sing, shout
Scream till the words dry out
Put it in all of the papers
Sing, shout
Scream till the words dry out
Put it in all of the papers
Read all about it
