I wasted my life for the slogan,
For a land so lost and broken
Heavy like a word that goes unspoken, Hit me now,
cuz I'm wide open

Don't give me words
Give me some action,
Don't give me words
Give me some action now

Ready to come, come and get me?
Pick up the dollhouse pieces of my injured body.
This ain't like nothin' you've seen on TV
Free to touch me, but really, how free are we?

I need your sex and war
I am the love so pure
the one you're waiting for,

Love rain down now,
love rain down,
love rain down on me,
love rain down.
love rain down...
