She's alone at home,
He's alone at home.
Did nobody get the message?
They were out on their own.
Picked a nice quiet bar.
Chatted up at the bar, safe and sound
with no one around,
they wait and leave in her car.

What they don't know
won't hurt them,
if what we do is working.

She's all about it,
he tried hard not to doubt it.
To her there's no difference
in conference or common sense.
His pants are so tight,
he can handle this tonight,
But who is the one who suffers
when you mistake your own plight?

What they don't know won't hurt them she said.
If what we do is working...

Is it working for you?
Cuz it's not working for me,
no it never will, no it never will...

Get back on that dead horse and ride,
get back on that dead horse and ride it out of here.

What they don't know won't hurt them she said.
If what we do is working...
