Visit "Sneak A Peek" on MotoLyrics.com

I take a look at you and I see what you're doing but you know my intention

It's your obstructed view from all of that ass that ass you've been kissing

Now what do you see
that's fine
my eyes are wide open

I take a look at you now like a house cat sneaks a peek but you're ripe for the pickin'

When I lay you down and I run you through 'cuz you know that's my mission

Now what do you see
my eyes are wide open

Once you picked me up from the dirt like a flower or something and in your eyes
I saw a reflection of myself just a little bit faded

I take a look at you in the rear view mirror and now the bomb is exploding

There's four or five in the gun going round for round and you know I'm unloading
