"Walk Away"

Visit "Walk Away" on MotoLyrics.com

Our anger brought us together
Your anger tore us apart
You never had a father
You never had a heart
I don't ever hate you
I just feel sorry
These last months are finally over
We've never been further apart

It wasn't easy for me
but sometimes you have to walk away

All of the cards you've been holding You're calling them on yourself
You're happy with your new love
It's a flower you've never smelled

I am so damn over cleaning up your garbage
I am finally sober
Sober enough to move on
