Our lives are entwined, can't escape
But you and I have never met face to face
Still I can't get away
Think that you can just step right in Push me out and then f###k things all up again
It never seems to end

Do you think that you're better than me
You better wake up 'cause cause you know it's all a lie
Do you think that you're better than me
You better wake up

Cling to skeletons, fearing change
Paralyzed thinking what the future will bring Pure adrenaline, I tear in Hatred is my fuel
Truth dissects you again
And you've run out of friends

Do you think that you're better than me
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me
You better wake up

And now it's time, the countdown begins
Extracting the truth, what was from what is
And once and for all we lay it to rest
And never look back

I can't believe all the things done to me sight unseen
You don't know one f###king thing but you judge me

Do you think that you're better than me
You better wake up 'cause you know it's a lie
Do you think that you're better than me
you better wake up
