F##k you I'm through
I want more from you
My sanity is wearing thin
I rate, I hate
You determined you're own fate
Now everything is caving in

F##k your power trip and
F##k your attitude and
F##k your bloated ego too
F##k your history, your tragedy, your misery
But most of all...f##k you

F##f this, all of this
B#itch and moan and bleed and p#ss
Seconds away from goin' down
Go ahead and push me
Your fakery, you butchery
Is nothing compared to my hate for you

F##k your apathy and F##k your empathy and
F##k your nihilism, too

F##k your bitter pills, take em all, you never will
But most of all...f##k you

Nothing changes, nothing fazes, nothing stays the same

F##k your power trip and
F##k your attitude and
F##k your history, your tragedy, your misery
But most of all... motherf##ker, f##k you!
