I will not forgive you, 4evermore
Embedded into my skin, all your thoughts from deep within
I'm trying to escape them now, but you just won't let it be
Jealousy has got you now, the craving is eating you
This is so plain to see, this is just who you are
So now I ask you, what's this all for?
There is no reason, this trust was torn!
I will not forgive you
I cannot forgive you
Misery loves company, that is why you try and bring me down
I am stronger than you will know, more than your integrity
Jealousy has got you now, the craving is eating you
I am trying to escape this now, why can't you just let it be?
So now I ask you, what's this all for?
There is no reason, this trust was torn!
I will not forgive you
I cannot forgive you forevermore!
Get out Get out Get out! Get out Get out Get out!
I will not forgive you
I cannot forgive you forevermore!
Forevermore!
