"Someone To Blame"

Your unbelievable, so divine, your so damn beautiful, one of a kind
I'm addicted, I can't stop the taste, I blame you now because you're
Someone to Blame
You are watching me fill, I'm falling into it all and there is nothing I can do You are watching me fall, I'm falling into it all and now I blame you for Everything
You can't stop this because I want more The touch of your lips is a kiss to die for I'm addicted, I can't stop the taste, I blame you now
because you're
Someone to Blame
You are watching me fall, I'm falling into it all and there is nothing I can do
You are watching me fall, I'm falling into it all and now I blame you for Everything
I BLAME YOU!
I just can't stop the taste, I just can't stop the taste, I just can't stop the taste Why!
You are watching me fall, I'm falling into it all and there is nothing I can do
You are watching me fall, I'm falling into it all and now I blame you for Everything
I BLAME YOU! YOU! YOU!
I BLAME YOU! YOU! YOU!
I BLAME YOU!
