All that's lost will burn in hell... eternal...
And all that's lost will burn in hell... eternal flame

Come, gather... Congregate!
Let's storm with rage the Pearly Gates
Tear down, Demolish, fear Our Hate
Dominate, Congregate, Eliminate!

All that's lost will burn in hell... eternal...
All that's lost will burn in hells eternal flame

The angels' blood will paint the skies, They burn tonight
The angels' blood will paint the skies, The soul... die...

Join the war We're living, Join the war We're living...
With Us there's no forgiving, with Us there's no
forgiving
With joy We sin
We rather burn! We rather burn!

Upon the throne We watch Them cry
They hear Our laughter
By Our torture They will die
When We rise
Once They were blind
Now to see...
Now where's Their god...
Now death's divine

Come, gather... Congregate!
Let's storm with rage the Pearly Gates
Tear down, demolish, precipitate
Now join the hordes, devastate!

Congregate, Congregate,
