"All Is Lost"

Visit "All Is Lost" on MotoLyrics.com

It is time for light to disappear
No emancipation, this darkness drawing near Ascension lost now, a relentless fight
Uncontrolled aggression, to end all life

All I am, all I feed, turns in me
My final thoughts, my beliefs, lost to me

No god to save us now, it's too late
Havoc reeked and turmoil wrought, no escaping fate

No satisfaction in what is to come
The essential nature, the fatal sun
No hesitation to take all life
No apprehension to quell the spite

Can we avoid this devastation, bitter hope our last salvation
Total loss, annihilation

Witness our evisceration, further in our degradation
Total loss, annihilation

All is lost, all we trust, taken away
Nothing but dust now remains

All is now lost
