Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
You've got to make a serious decision
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
You've got to make a serious decision

It could be me up there in stage lights
It could be me on the TV in you living room It could be me jet setting with my band all across the world Appearing live in concert one night only, tickets sold out

Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
You've got to make a serious decision

There I am giving candid disclosure to press in interview
There I go on my way through the crowd up to the podium
On behalf of our fans we'd like to accept this award Smile for the camera boys, gold record in hand

Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you
You've got to make a serious decision

All of our lives in waiting All of our lives traded for their roses and applause All of our lives dedicated to shoving it right back in their fucking face

Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you

Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you

Stop! Take some time to think, figure out what's
important to you

You've got to make a serious decision

I said you've got to make a serious decision

Stop! Take some time to think
