Acid blood in the veins
Glaring into a dark future
With hate burning in his mind
And the pleasure of watching you peg out
It's totally in vain
To lick his dirty boots
And ask him for mercy
Because he loves to kill

(Chorus)
Mercyless mercenary
Brings you pain and crushes your face
Banishes your soul into eternal fire
A dark and wicked place
Satan's servant - His mind is void
Follows blind - One of a thousand men

Satan's servant - His mind is void
Follows blind - One of a thousand men

Mercyless mercenary
Brings you pain and crushes your face
Banishes your soul into eternal fire
A dark and wicked place

Once he was an ordinary soldier
With honour and a normal pay
But the greed for gold and money
Made him sign the parchment of no return

(Repeat 1st verse)

(Repeat chorus)
