Something has change in your life
Lots of troubles burn your mind
You are fed up with bad signs
Therefore I've written for you these lines

Your chance has come
Leave your fears far from you
Now you can shout so loud
And I know
The past has gone
You'll start again with new pride
And this time you won't fail

It's no surrender if you want fight
Remember brave warriors never die
Look for your well-being, feel you alive
You know you can carry on, scream at the sky!

You are not alone in this way
Count on me and on your friends
You can win in this long play
Death's the enemy to face

Feel the rising force
Told the weakness "no more"
Say: "no more... I'm tough"
Just control your mind
Wait in the battle line
Where you'll stay until the end

It's no surrender if you want fight
Remember brave warriors never die
Look for your well-being, feel you alive
You know you can carry on, scream at the sky!

[Solos]

The past has gone
You'll start again with new pride
And this time you won't fail

It's no surrender if you want fight

Remember brave warriors never die
Look for your well-being, feel you alive
You know you can carry on, scream at the sky!
