Seasons will follow
The death of the land
Governed by spirits
The sons of Abraham
Let the wind blow
Let it begin
The end of the new world
The source of all sin

Rejoice for the ones to come
We must let them go
Rejoice for the one to lead
The dead of Jericho

All who condemn us
Let you be gone
For what has been written
Must always be done
The path to salvation
The reason for life
In death we have found it
For death we must fight

Rejoice for the ones to come
We must let them go
Rejoice for the one to lead
The Dead of Jericho

And the walls come tumbling down
And the dead peace have found
