Another one is programmed
The culprit on the run
Beneath the darkened sun

It saturates the system
Sticking at the core
Always wanting more...

Recognizing
I know you
Not because you want me to Analyzing
I know you

Gave you the chance to exit
My will over your wrong
You crumble into song

The pattern, it consumes you
Ripping at your soul
Eliminating you

Recognizing
I know you
Not because you want me to Analyzing
I know you
