well last nite i saw you were breathing once again man we dont know well confused i said was i dreamin constraints beyond our control

*chorus*

and wisdom left through the window and pride walked out in vain you hurried out he runs around a vision gone away heeeeyyyyaayaya

well i hear the echo itsa screamin now its time to hit the floor the silence falls with an illusion but still youre comin back, youre comin back for more

*chorus*

your eyes are red what you been smokin your breath smells like a 100 beers if id asume id think its okay cuz we hadnt felt this way in many years

(instrumental)

*chorus*3x
