(J. Martinez/Psychefunkapus)

I see the dawning of a new beginning
And it feels like I'm riding on the winds of change
Yes, I'm taking the lead, but I still ain't winning
Takin' all that I can before the light of day
I can see the world goin' on around me
I can smell the scent of magic in the air
I can hear all the voices behind me
I can make up my mind between heaven and hell
The priest and the doctor pray for my well-being
As they research and pray that I will see the light
But I realize it's themselves who they're freeing
When I step in the box or I lie on the couch
Makes no sense to me to start pretending
That I'll ever find salvation through a man
Mine alone is the soul that I'm mending
AND I won't let this world interfere with my plans
Please get me out of here!
Help me to get out of here!
Little men inside my brain

Some cause pleasure, some cause pain
Riding high on waves of fear
Trying to lead me out of here
Trying to lead me out of here
Out of here!
Faith takes comfort of all my inhibitions
As the vapors of guilt escape through my pores
AND now once again it's my conscious condition
That allows me the strength to break open the doors
I can see the world goin' on around me
I can smell the scent of magic in the air
I can hear the voices behind me
I can make up my mind between heaven and hell
Please get me out of here
I need to get out of here
Please get me out of here
I need to get out of here
Please get me out of here
I need to get out of here
Please get me out of here
I need to get out of here
