"Fixx" by Pyschefunkapus

Why must I live my life tomorrow?

Why can't I deal with it today?

Why do I steal, cheat, and borrow?

Why am I throwing my life away?

I can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

You can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

I can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

You can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

Why is it my mind is always wandering?

Why do I gaze into the stars?

Where is it my lonely soul is floundering to,

Is it deep within the river of my old scars?

I can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

You can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

I can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

You can't seem

(to get a fixx up)

I (get a fixx up)

You (get a fixx up)

We (get a fixx up)

Us (get a fixx up)

Why do I gaze at my reflection?

What is it that attracts me to a mirror?

Where must I run to seek protection?

Why do I bother running from my own fears?

(Man I'll tell you)

get a fixx up

get a fixx up

get a fixx up
