"Regeneration" by Psychefunkapus
let's go to work
Let's go to war
Let's break down doors of distant shores
we can exchange gifts
city for city
But where will you run when all the dust settles to the ground
and there's no one else around?
Regeneration
Regeneration
So nobody's perfect but can you think of somethin' better to do with $100 bill' or so?
We can build it up
and we will tear it down but what will you do when all the

and there's nothing you can crown Regeneration
Regeneration
let's go to work
Let's go to war
Let's break down doors of distant shores
we can exchange gifts
it won't be too pretty
and there's no one else around?
