"End Of My Kingdom"

I've had enough of disbelief
I've had enough of wasted lives alright
I'm making up for my leeway I just Can't escape your lies

More than sick n' tired I've come this far
I'm falling in too deep one more time
No more images of Disrespect
I'm drowning in my sleep

I'm so fucking right about the end of my kingdom
I'm so fucking proud I reign upon hate

I've had enough of useless grief
I've seen enough of wasted lives alright
I'm running on my own leeway and I
Will escape your lies

More than sick n' tired I've come this far
I'm climbing up the steep one more time
Few deep cuts on my sidetrack mean
No more darks to keep

All my life hope for better times to come
