Feel the pressure build inside
Adrenaline takes you for a ride
You are falling to pieces
Your self-control decreases

Get a hold of yourself
This is something you'll regret
Stop, think, use your head
You might as well forget

You like being alive
Not knowing when it's your time

You know where to find
Love and a state of mind
From this crime you will learn
You took the wrong turn

Now laying in silence
A victim of your violence
Truth you can't own someone
A life over and done

The ones with the problems
Don't try to solve them
Make everything worse
Themselves come first

You like being alive
Not knowing when it's your time

You know where to find
From this crime you will learn
